

27 Mar 2013

TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN

Amitysoft Technologies Private Limited has been providing services to Ramco Systems in the area of software quality management and testing services for the last 15 years. During this period Amitysoft has contributed for sustaining our ISO 9001 Quality Management System, achieving higher maturity levels of CMM/ CMMI, Information Security SAS 70 certification efforts besides testing for our core Enterprise products and Cloud based Software Solutions. Amitysoft team is capable of identifying process gaps, defining / refining/ improving process definitions, providing training, participating in SQA, support to successful implementation of processes across the organization. Ramco's quality management system comprise of processes for product development, maintenance, support, implementation, migration and testing processes for enterprise applications, treasury/ banking and aviation solutions. Amitysoft team is highly knowledgeable in the area of software quality, International Standards/ Models, professional in work execution with high level of integrity and ensure customer satisfaction. We strongly recommend them for any organizations looking for improving their processes and ISO/CMMI certifications.

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read 'S. Pandimani'.

Dr. Pandimani S 2703 2013
General Manager – Quality Management